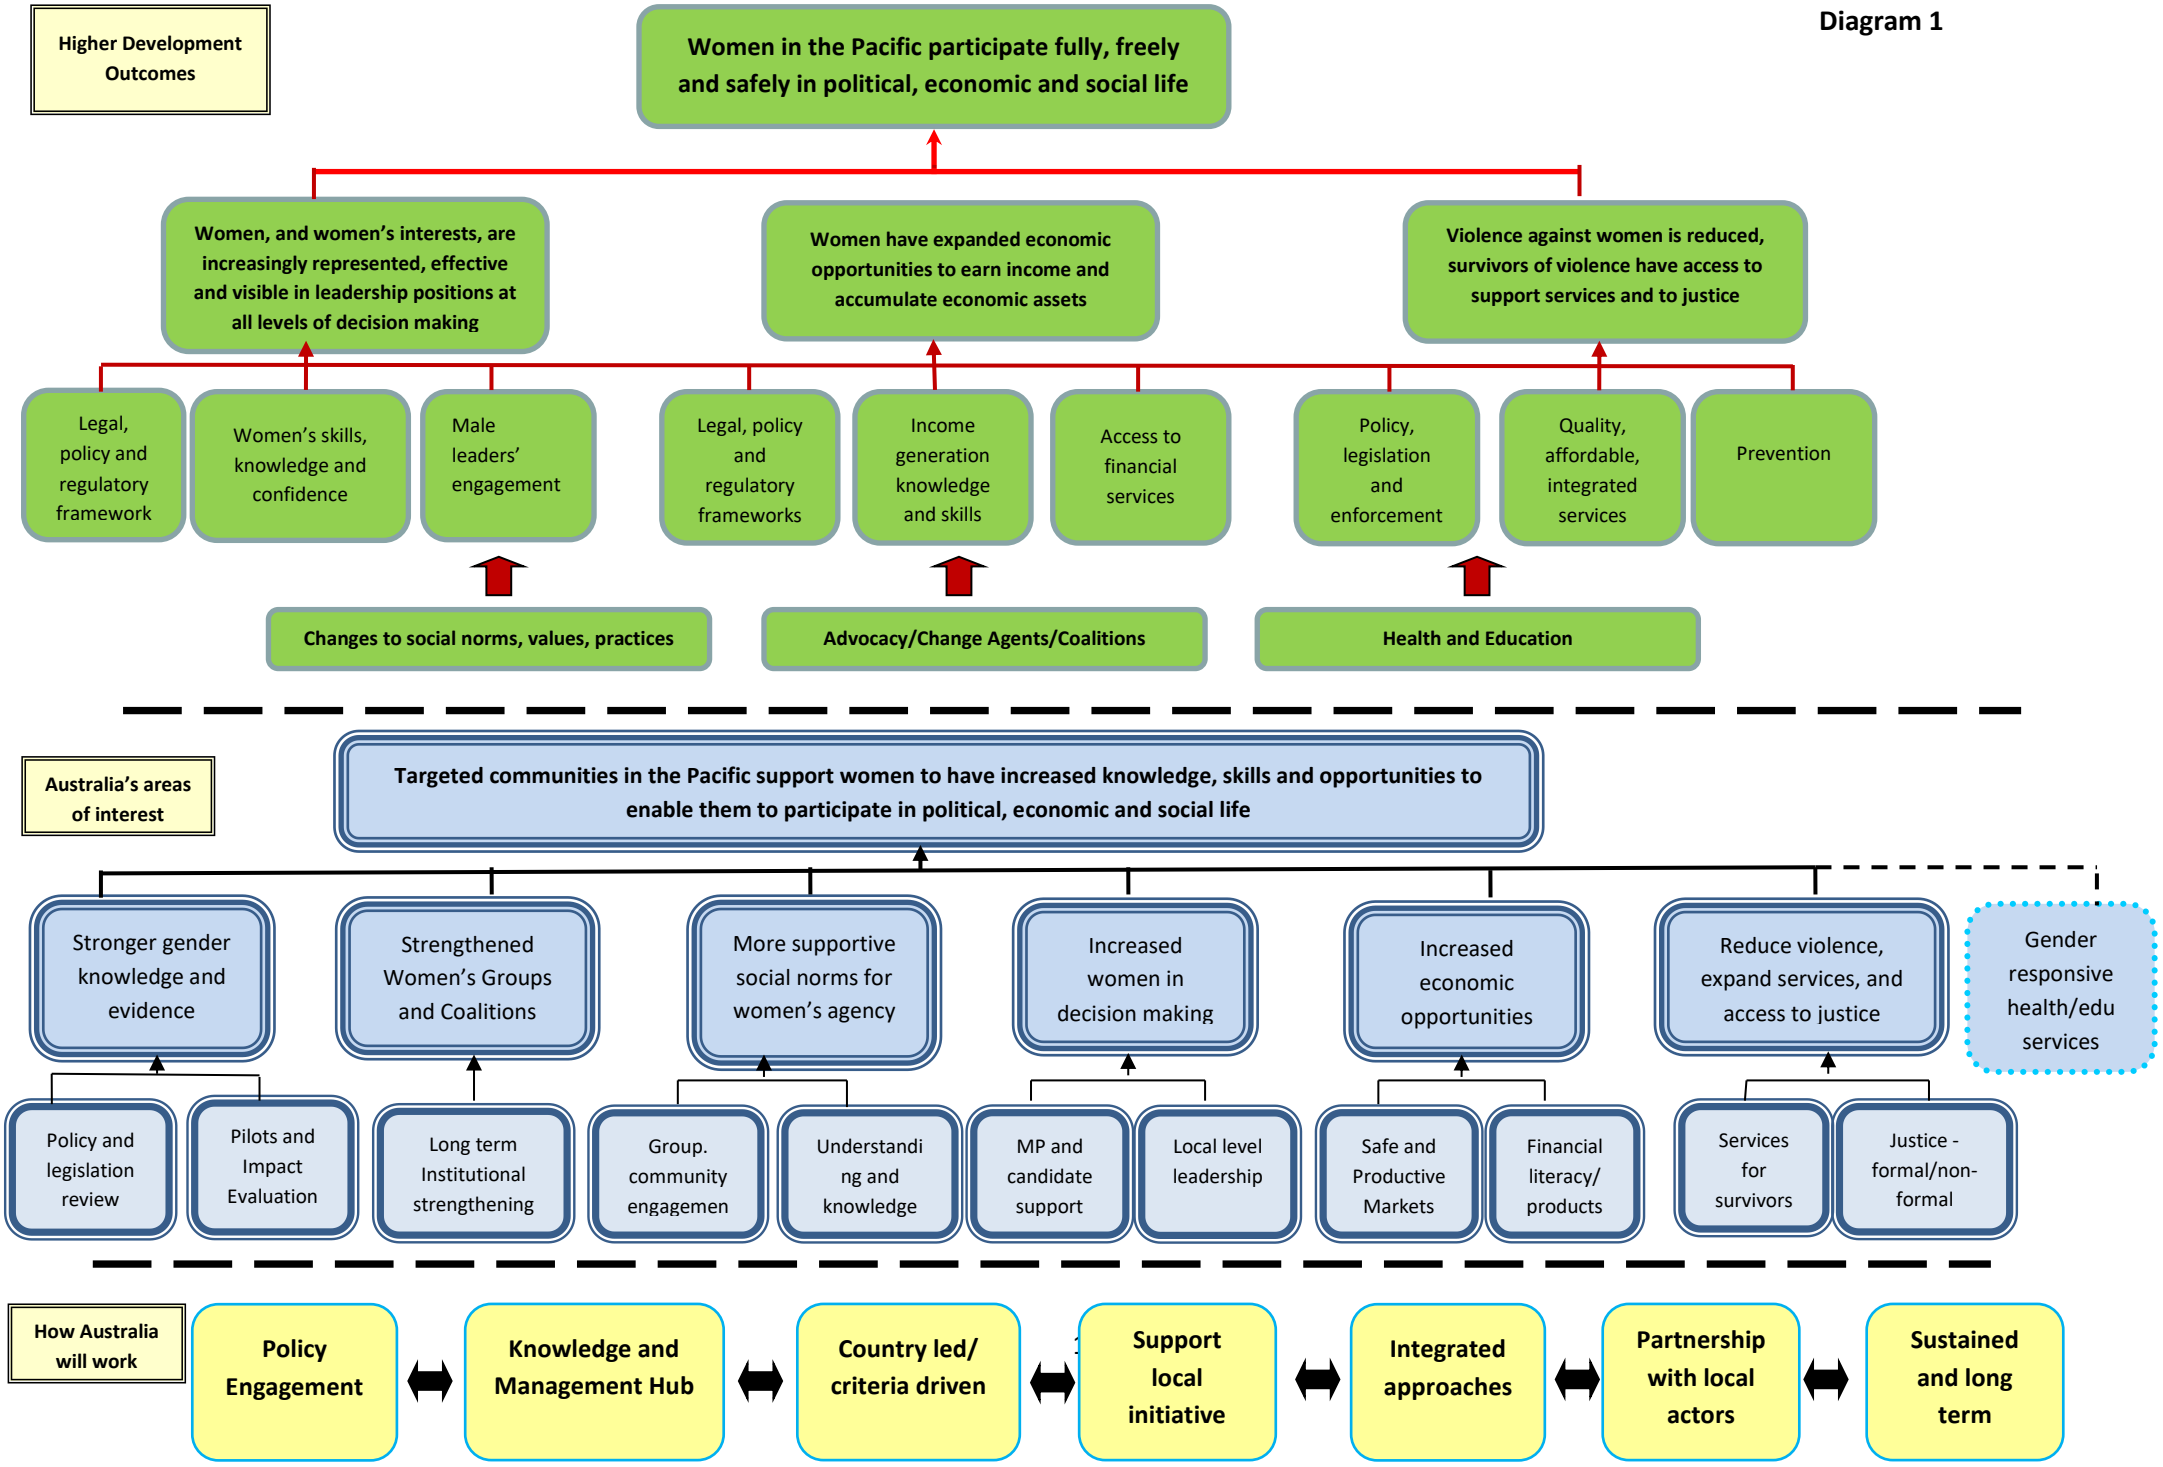

Diagram 1

Higher Development Outcomes
Women in the Pacific participate fully, freely and safely in political, economic and social life
Women, and women's interests, are increasingly represented, effective and visible in leadership positions at all levels of decision making
Women have expanded economic opportunities to earn income and accumulate economic assets
Violence against women is reduced, survivors of violence have access to support services and to justice
Legal, policy and regulatory framework
Women's skills, knowledge and confidence
Male leaders' engagement
Legal, policy and regulatory frameworks
Income generation knowledge and skills
Access to financial services
Policy, legislation and enforcement
Quality, affordable, integrated services
Prevention
Changes to social norms, values, practices
Advocacy/Change Agents/Coalitions
Health and Education
Australia's areas of interest
Targeted communities in the Pacific support women to have increased knowledge, skills and opportunities to enable them to participate in political, economic and social life
Stronger gender knowledge and evidence
Strengthened Women's Groups and Coalitions
More supportive social norms for women's agency
Increased women in decision making
Increased economic opportunities
Reduce violence, expand services, and access to justice
Gender responsive health/edu services
Policy and legislation review
Pilots and Impact Evaluation
Long term Institutional strengthening
Group. community engagemen
Understandi ng and knowledge
MP and candidate support
Local level leadership
Safe and Productive Markets
Financial literacy/ products
Services for survivors
Justice - formal/non-formal
How Australia will work
Policy Engagement
Knowledge and Management Hub
Country led/ criteria driven
Support local initiative
Integrated approaches
Partnership with local actors
Sustained and long term

Section 1: Introduction