Patellofemoral pain (PFP) is a common chronic musculoskeletal disorder [1] defined as anterior knee (around or behind patella) pain aggravated by activities that load the patellofemoral (PF) joint, such as stair ambulation, squatting, jumping, or running [1, 2].