Chapter 18.33
ACCESSORY DWELLING UNITS

18.33.010 Purpose.

The purpose of this chapter is to:

- A. Increase the supply of smaller units and rental housing units by allowing accessory dwelling units to locate on lots which contain existing or proposed single-family dwellings and existing two-family and multifamily dwellings;
- B. Establish standards for accessory dwelling units to ensure that they are compatible with existing neighborhoods; and
- C. Comply with state law regarding accessory dwelling units (California Government Code Sections 65852.2 and 65852.22) and the California Coastal Act (California Public Resources Code Sections 30000 through 30900).

18.33.020 Review and approval.

- A. Accessory Dwelling Unit Applications. Accessory dwelling unit applications, including applications for junior accessory dwelling units, shall be submitted to and processed by the community development director as follows:
 - 1. Residential Dwelling Unit Allocation. Accessory dwelling units require a residential dwelling unit allocation pursuant to Chapters 17.06 and 18.04; provided, that no processing fee pursuant to Section 17.06.040 shall be required.
 - 2. Coastal Development Permit. All accessory dwelling units shall conform to Chapter 18.20, as provided below.
 - a. An accessory dwelling unit that is wholly within an existing single-family dwelling, that does not involve the removal or replacement of major structural components (e.g., roofs, exterior walls, foundations), and that does not change the size of the structure or intensity of use, does not constitute “development” as defined in Public Resources Code Section 30106 and Section 18.20.020(C) and does not require a coastal development permit. Such an accessory dwelling unit changes the intensity of use if it primarily involves the creation of new habitable space.
 - b. An accessory dwelling unit that is contained within or attached to an existing single-family dwelling unit or accessory structure and that does not change the intensity of use or expand the floor area, height, or bulk of the existing unit or structure by more than ten percent is exempt from the requirement to secure approval of a coastal development permit pursuant to Public Resources Code Section 30610(a) or, for existing guest houses, Section 30610(b). An accessory dwelling unit changes the intensity of use if it primarily involves the creation of new habitable space. This exemption shall not be granted if one or more of the criteria in Subchapter 7, Title 14, Section 13250(b) or, for existing guest houses, Section 13253(b) of the California Code of Regulations, as may be amended from time to
