

Please note that your dependants (Spouse, Children and dependant Parents) can be covered upto the coverage specified for you (also mentioned below). The cover limit for the employee is fixed based on the grade and the company pays the premium for the same. The premium payable towards the dependants will have to be borne by the employee and the same would be deducted from the Salary in April / May 2007.

We have premium reference and the service tax. these are schedule and variation based rates.

In the absence from you, the would continue.

and the details are correct and if there is no change required, there is no need to confirm.

enclosed the schedule for your does not include Please note that standard premium there would be on the market

of any response current coverage If the coverage

For any clarifications, please contact Mahabal or me.