Honeywell Offline Activation System

Instructions:

Insert your external USB drive, containing the Customer To Vendor (C2V) file from the computer on which you want to activate. Upload the C2V file from your computer by clicking Browse. Locate the C2V file and click Open. Type your product key in the entry field and click Activate. A successful activation initiates a download of a Vendor To Customer (V2C) file. Save this file to your external USB drive. Connect the USB drive to the computer on which you want to activate.
