Our Relationship in Detail

Evaluation

You are an important supplier of various items that I need

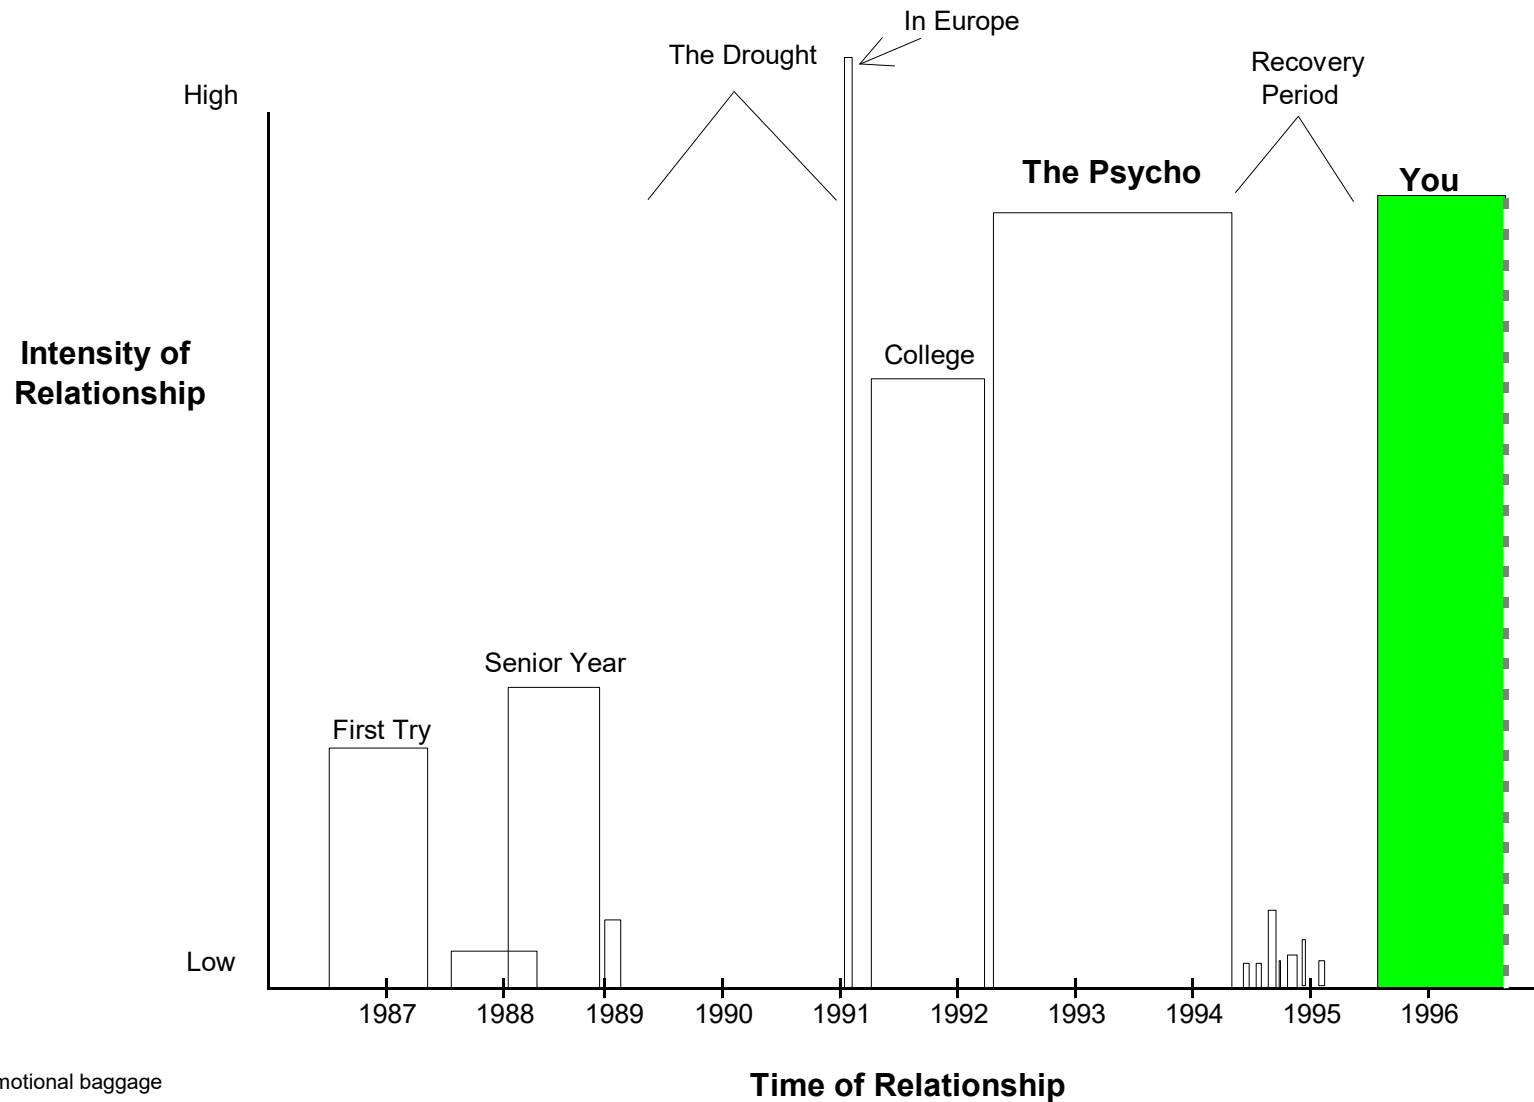

Supply of Item

Illustrative Example

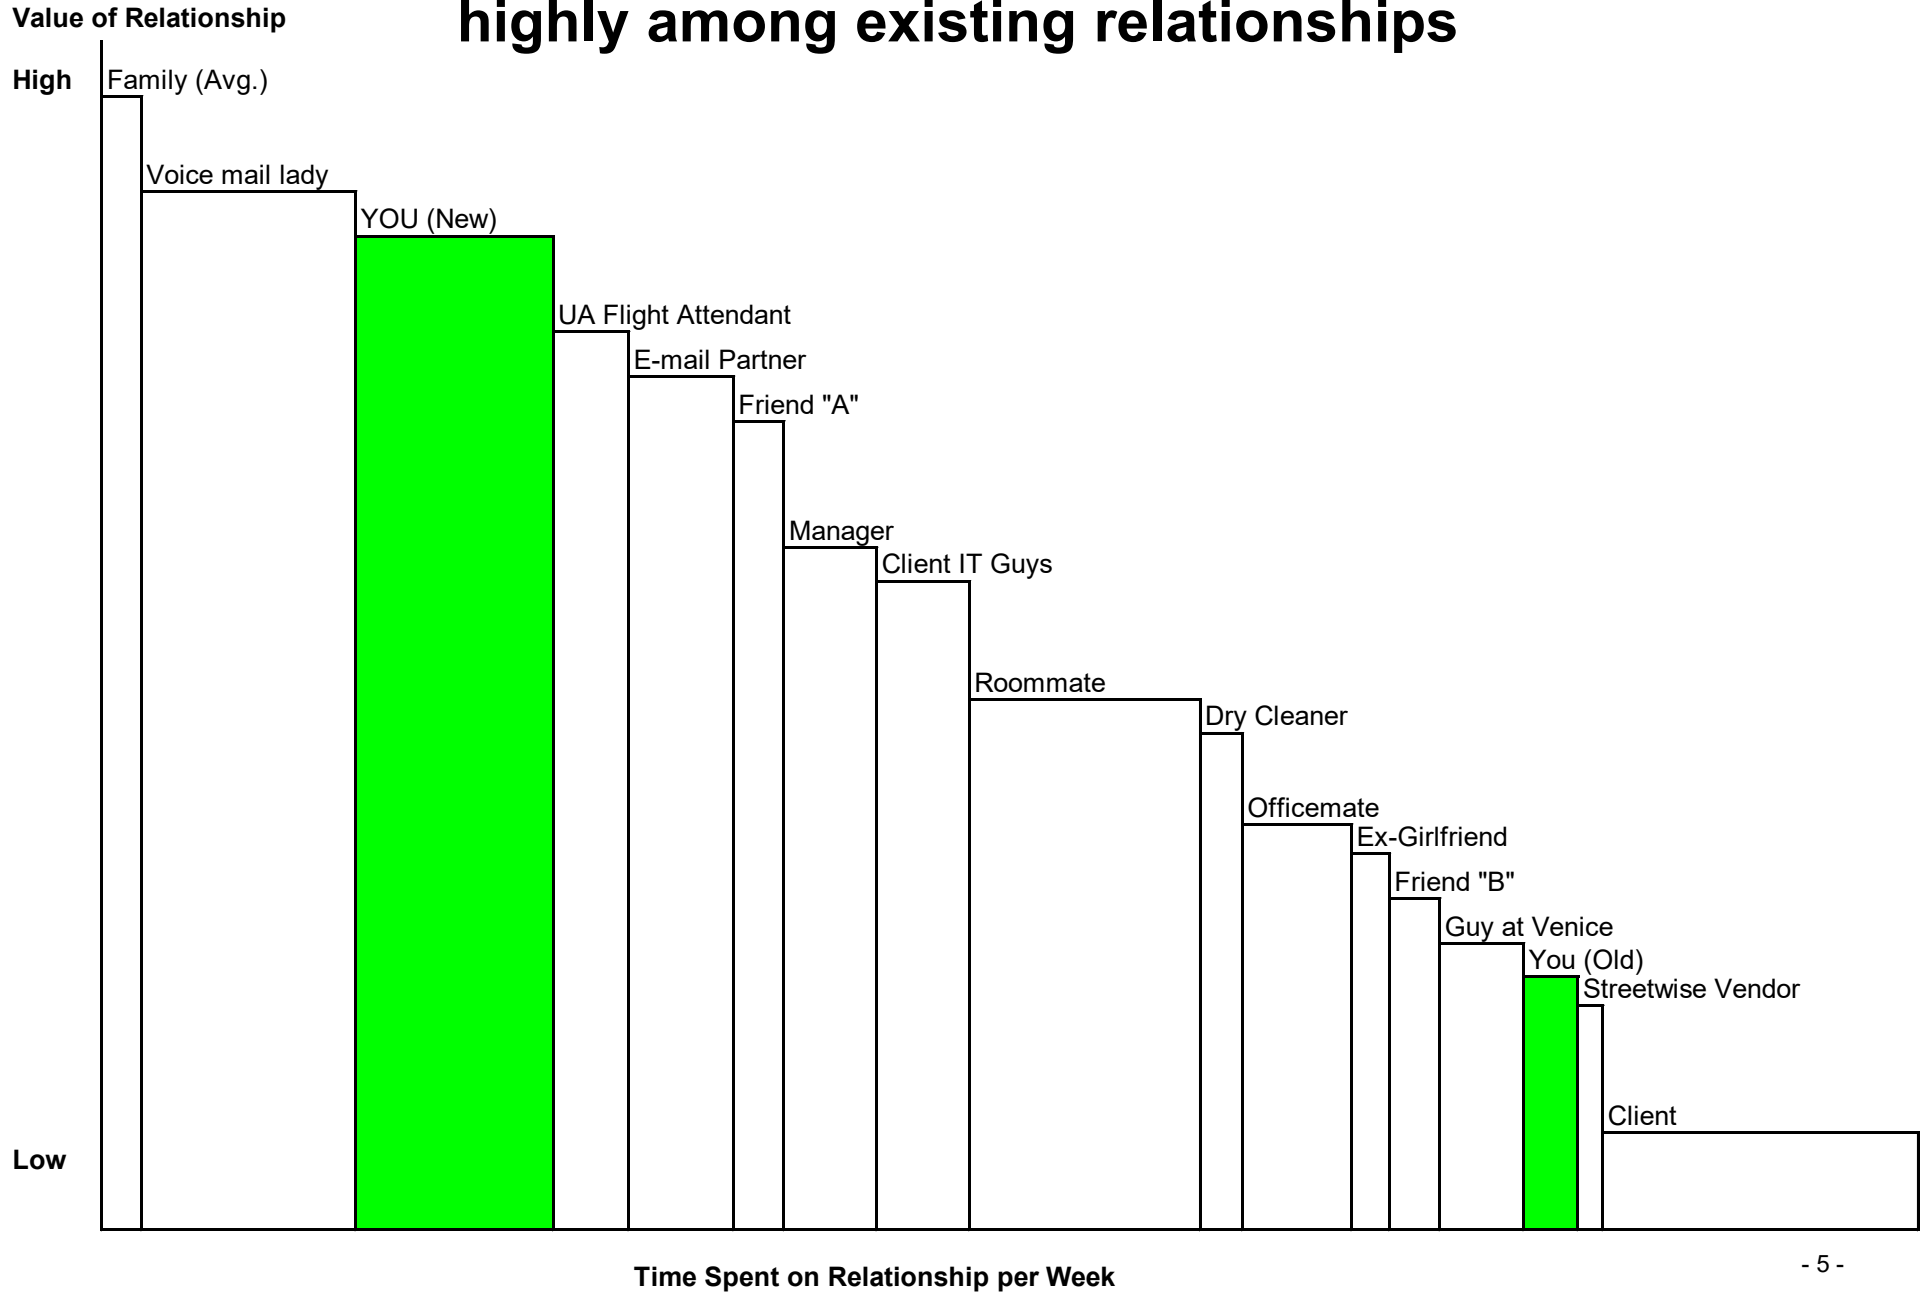

Although The Psycho set back my relationship process, recovery is luckily enough under way

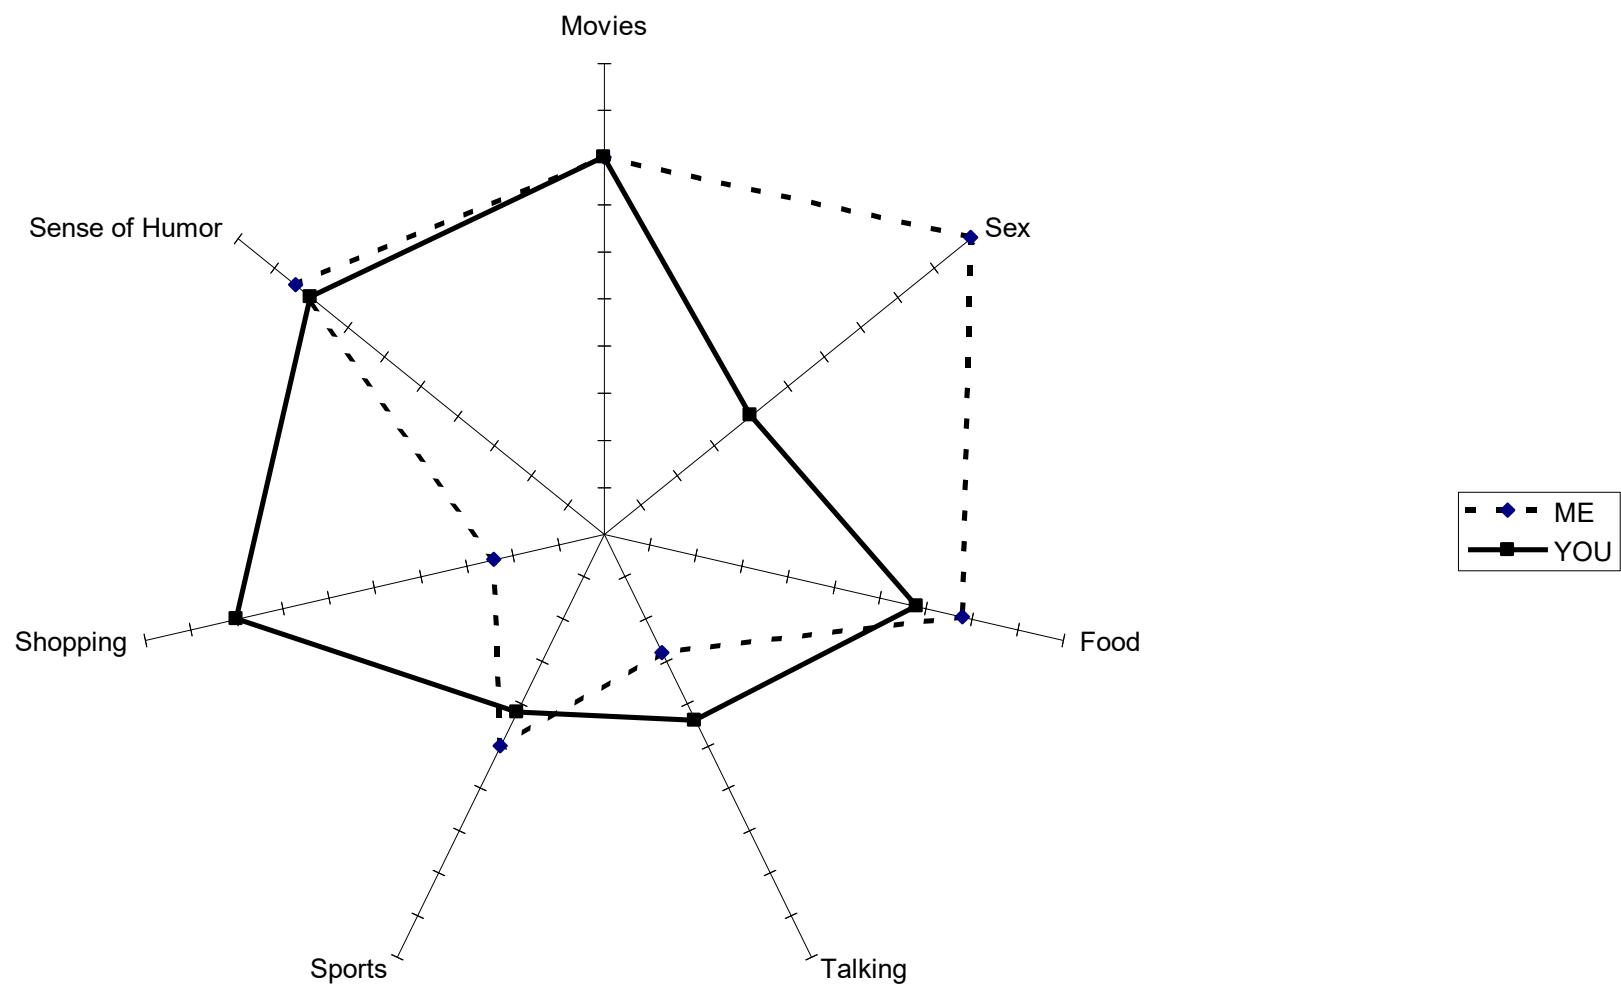

Relationship duration and intensity

Since the time that we seriously go out together, you rank highly among existing relationships

Although our personal interests are mostly compatible, the greatest gap exists in Sex and Shopping

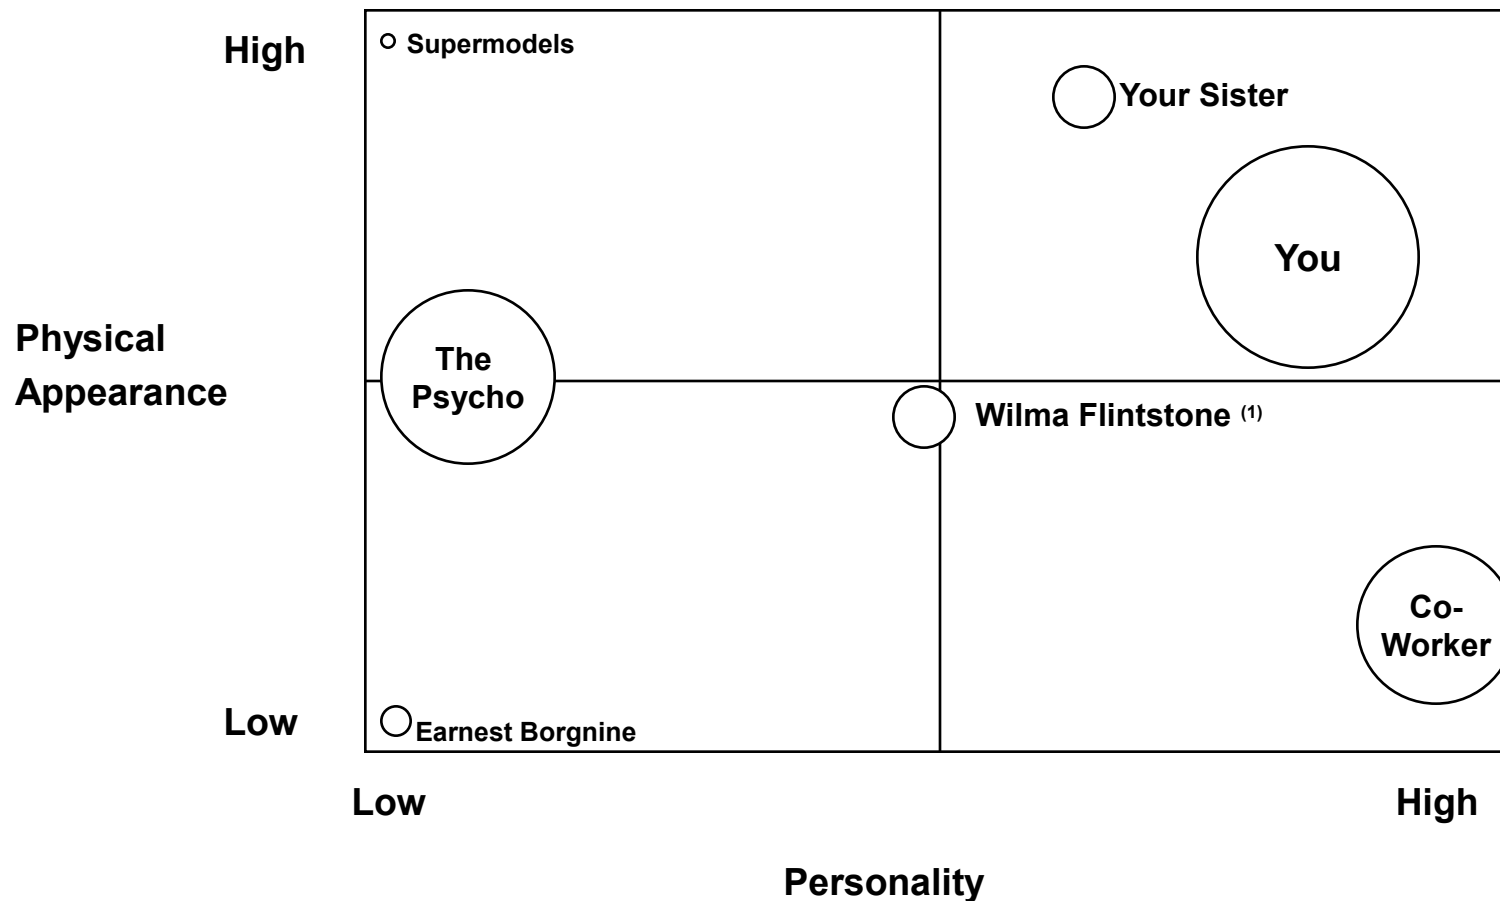

Your physical characteristics are strong when compared with your competition

Physical characteristics

Name	Eyes	Hair	Height	Body	Legs	Face
You
Sharon Stone
The Psycho
Earnest Borgnine
Your Sister
Roseanne
Satan ⁽¹⁾

(1) Satan requires eternal damnation

The combination of your high physical appearance and personality rank you highly, although your sister is also a top prospect

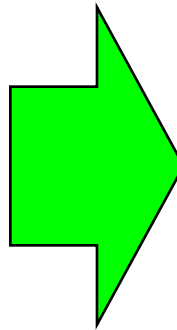

○ Likelihood of going out in near future

(1) Wilma Flintstone is a fictional character

When people found out that we were going out, their responses have been mixed

Reaction has been positive...

- “ They make a cute couple ”
- Mutual Friend
- “ I think it’s great. ”
- Officemate
- “She’s a babe”
- Male friend
- “ If she want’s him, fine. They deserve each other ”
- Ex-girlfriend (The Psycho)

...But awareness of relationship is low

- “ I didn’t even know they were going out
- Co- worker
- “ She doesn’t look Jewish”
- Female Parent
- “I thought he was gay.”
- Female Friend

“ It’s impossible to generalize. You gotta understand this is a relationship business.”
- Mutual Friend

The benchmark of relationship lifecycles, suggests that we are on schedule

“Liz Loop” Can Undermine Long-Term Success

In summary we can say that we are on the right track, but we must remain aware of possible roadblocks
