ELA Standards Format

Reading Standards for Literature 6–CCR

Following are the standards progressions for grades 6–CCR, which relate to their Conventions of Language instruction each year and help ensure students gain adequate exposure to a range of texts and tasks. Rigor is also maintained through the grades.

Grade 6 students are able to:	Grade 7 students are able to:	Grade 8 students are able to:
Key Ideas and Details
1. Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as to draw inferences from the text.	1. Cite more than one source of textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as to draw inferences from the text.	1. Cite specific textual evidence to support analysis of what the text says explicitly as well as to draw inferences from the text.
2. Articulate how a theme or central idea develops over the course of a text.	2. Infer themes not explicitly stated in a text and provide the evidence on which those inferences are based.	2. Analyze how motifs, such as recurring images or events, contribute to the development of themes or overall meanings in a poem, drama, or narrative.
3. Describe how the plot constructs a series of episodes that delineates a problem to be solved and how the problem requires characters to change, revise plans, or face challenges as they move toward a resolution.	3. Describe shifts in time or location over the course of a novel or play and explain how elements of the setting reinforce the theme or other aspects of the work.	3. Describe how particular lines of dialogue or specific incidents in a drama or narrative propel the action, reveal aspects of a character, or highlight a theme or major idea.
Craft and Structure
4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative meanings, and analyze how an author's choice of specific words in a text contributes to understanding events, characters, and ideas.	4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in the text, including connotative meanings, and describe in detail the impact of specific word choices on the meaning and tone of the text.	4. Interpret words and phrases as they are used in the text, including figurative meanings, and analyze how an author's choice of specific words in a text contributes to understanding events, characters, and ideas.
5. Compare a poem with a conventional structure, such as a sonnet, to a free verse poem, considering such factors as meter and rhyme scheme.	5. Describe how any given chapter, scene, or stanza fits into the overall structure of a narrative, drama, or poem and contributes to development of the plot or ideas presented.	5. Explain how a text's structure contributes to its development and meaning.
6. Compare and contrast the viewpoints or perspectives of different characters in a narrative or drama.	6. Compare and contrast the internal conflicts that characters experience with external conflicts in the plot.	6. Explain how dramatic irony, created by differences between what an audience (or reader) knows and what the characters know in a drama or narrative, produces suspense, anxiety, or humor.
Integration of Knowledge and Ideas
7. Analyze how illustrations, diagrams, or multimedia elements contribute to the meaning of print and digital texts, including graphic novels or multimedia presentations of fiction.	7. Examine the tools used to produce video, film, or theater (e.g., lighting, sound, pacing, color, camera angles) by comparing a written text to its staged or multimedia version.	7. Analyze how a film or live production of a drama or narrative contributes to its development and meaning.
8. Describe the reasoning and rhetoric one character uses to persuade another.	8. Analyze how characters in a text interact to develop the plot or themes.	8. Analyze how a text's structure contributes to its development and meaning.
9. Compare similar ideas and themes (e.g., opposition of dark and light, the struggle for power) as well as character types and patterns of events in myths, creation stories, and other traditional literature from different cultures.	9. Examine specific cases in which modern fiction draws on patterns of story or character from traditional narratives (e.g., the hero and companions, the quest).	9. Analyze how a text's structure contributes to its development and meaning.
Range and Level of Complex Texts
10. Demonstrate the capacity to read literature independently in the grades 6–8 text complexity band; read texts at the high end of the range with scaffolding as needed.	10. Demonstrate the capacity to read literature independently in the grades 6–8 text complexity band; read “stretch” texts in the grades 9–10 text complexity band with scaffolding as needed.	10. Demonstrate the capacity to read literature independently in the grades 6–8 text complexity band; gain sustained practice with “stretch” texts in the grades 9–10 text complexity band with scaffolding as needed.

Additional Components of the Learning Standards for ELA

- Anchor standards (K-12)
- Literacy standards for History/Social Studies, Science and other Technical Subjects (Grades 6-12)
- Appendix A
 - Text complexity
- Appendix B
 - Illustrative texts
- Appendix C
 - Student writing exemplars
- Language Progressive Skills (Grades 3-12)

Three Key Shifts

- Building knowledge through content-rich nonfiction
- Reading, writing and speaking grounded in evidence from text, both literary and informational
- Regular practice with complex text and its academic language

Ten Guiding Principles

1. Make close reading of texts central to lesson
2. Structure majority of instruction so all students read grade-level complex texts
3. Emphasize informational texts from early grades on
4. Provide scaffolding that does not preempt or replace text
5. Ask text-dependent questions

Ten Guiding Principles

6. Provide extensive research and writing opportunities (claims and evidence)
7. Offer regular opportunities for students to share ideas, evidence and research
8. Offer systematic instruction in vocabulary
9. Provide explicit instruction in grammar and conventions
10. Cultivate students' independence

Transitioning to Ohio's New Learning Standards

- Familiarize yourself with structure and content of new standards
- Understand commonalities and differences between current and revised standards
- Discuss implications for instruction and assessment
- Utilize the resources and the tools created by ODE for alignment

Intentional Design Limitations

What Standards do NOT define:

- How teachers should teach
- All that can or should be taught
- Nature of advanced work beyond core
- Interventions needed for students well below grade level
- Full range of support for English language learners and students with special needs

– Common Core Presentation 2010

Frequently Asked Question

Q: Will the common core state standards keep local teachers from deciding what or how to teach?

A: No.

- Common core standards are clear set of shared goals and expectations for what knowledge and skills will help students succeed
- Local teachers, principals, superintendents and others will decide how standards are met
- Teachers continue to devise lesson plans and tailor instruction to individual needs of students in classrooms
- Local teachers, principals, superintendents and school boards continue to make decisions about curriculum and how school systems are operated

SAMPLE CROSSWALK

Grade	Common Core State Standards	Ohio – 2001 Academic Content Standards Benchmarks
Grade Five	Reading for Literature
	Key Ideas and Details
	1. Quote accurately from a text when explaining what the text says explicitly and when drawing inferences from the text.	5RPC -Make meaning through asking and responding to a variety of questions related to text.
	2. Determine a theme of a story, drama, or poem from details in the text, including how characters in a story or drama respond to challenges or how the speaker in a poem reflects upon a topic; summarize the text.	5RPB -Apply effective reading comprehension strategies, including summarizing and making predictions, and comparisons using information in text, between text and across subject areas. 5LTE -Demonstrate comprehension by inferring themes, patterns and symbols.
	3. Compare and contrast two or more characters, settings, or events in a story or drama, drawing on specific details in the text (e.g., how characters interact).	5RPB -Apply effective reading comprehension strategies, including summarizing and making predictions, and comparisons using information in text, between text and across subject areas.
	Craft and Structure
	4. Determine the meaning of words and phrases as they are used in a text, including figurative language such as metaphors and similes.	5AVA -Use context clues and text structures to determine the meaning of new vocabulary. 5AVB -Infer word meaning through identification and analysis of analogies and other word relationships.
	5. Explain how a series of chapters, scenes, or stanzas fits together to provide the overall structure of a particular story, drama, or poem.	5RPA -Determine a purpose for reading and use a range of reading comprehension strategies to better understand text.
	6. Describe how a narrator's or speaker's point of view influences how events are described.	5LTD -Differentiate between the points of view in narrative text.

Not intended to be an exact match, rather to be used as a tool for orienting educators as they work on implementation.

Comparative Analysis

- A grade-level specific tool designed to help teachers understand the overall similarities and changes between the Ohio Academic Content Standards and Ohio's New Learning Standards.
- Will show:
 - What is the same
 - What is new
 - What is no longer present

Comparative Analysis

Content that has been shifted or changed in grade band 9-10	Content that appears in both documents	Content new to content area/grade level
The concepts and skills found in the Reading Process Standard of the Ohio Academic Content Standards are embedded in larger ideas within Reading, Writing, Speaking and Listening, and Language Strands of the Common Core State Standards	Reading for Literature • Citing textual evidence • Drawing inferences • Identifying theme • Analyzing character development • Determining tone • Analyzing point of view • Determining meanings of words and phrases • Analyzing diction • Analyzing treatment, scope & organization of text.	Reading for Literature • Analyzing a subject or key scene in different artistic mediums (RL.9-10.7) • Analyzing how an author draws on and transforms source material (RL.9) • Text complexity: the inherent difficulty of reading &comprehending a text combined with consideration of reader and text variables. (RL.9-10.10)

Next Step: Model Curricula

Why a Model Curriculum?

...the state board shall adopt a model curriculum...The model curriculum shall be aligned with the standards, to ensure that the academic content and skills specified for each grade level are taught to students, and shall demonstrate vertical articulation and emphasize coherence, focus, and rigor.

– ORC §3301.079(B)

What is the Model Curriculum?

Web-based tool, aligned to standards, that:

- Presents information specific to content area by grade level, grade band and course
- Provides curricular and instructional guidance
- Includes instructional strategies and resources
- Informs assessment development

Model Curriculum Example

Strand	Reading	Writing
Topic	Integration of Knowledge and Ideas
Standard Statements 7. Explain how specific aspects of a text's illustrations contribute to what is conveyed by the words in a story (e.g., create mood, emphasize aspects of a character or setting). 8. Not applicable to literature 9. Compare and contrast plots of stories written by the same author or similar characters (e.g., in books from the same time period).		In the previous grade band, students were expected to understand the role illustrations play in telling the story and were able to compare and contrast story variations. Content Elaborations Readers that are able to Integrate their Knowledge and Ideas are making connections and comparisons across texts and developing a deeper understanding of themes and topics as they appear across elements of a text which includes illustrations and media presentation, enhance the meaning of the text. This ability to compare and contrast texts with similar themes and patterns that cross time and culture they develop a broader understanding of themselves and the world around them. In the next grade band, students are expected to compare and contrast texts from different genres and mediums and determine how they affect.
Enduring Understanding Competent readers can synthesize information from a variety of sources including text, media, and other resources. Understanding the author's message/theme in a variety of forms or genres provides a full understanding of the author's message/theme as the ideas being explored.
Instructional Strategies and Resources Comparing Text Formats Compare and contrast texts done in different formats (i.e. book, e-book, film). Discuss how the texts are alike and how they are different with regards to plot, theme and setting. Use online versions of graphic organizers to record responses.

Preparation for New Standards Tasks for Districts

2010-2011

- Introduce new standards
- Participate in creating model curricula

2011-2012

- Build awareness of new standards
- Introduce model curricula
- Conduct crosswalk activities
- Initiate formative instruction PD
- Begin using CCSS for K-2 and 11-12.

2012-2013

- Introduce performance tasks and scoring rubrics
- Continue formative instruction PD
- Practice online formative assessments
- Introduce instructional improvement system

2013-2014

- Integrate standards and curricula into district curricula and teachers' course planning
- Integrate performance tasks in course activities
- Prepare for online testing
- Complete formative instruction PD
