

Typical Performance Presentation

Created with Office 9

Text – different font applied to each bullet level

- First indentation - TNR

- 2nd indentation - Arial

- 3rd indentation -Century

- 4th indentation - Verdana

- » Fifth and final level of indentation.

Two Charts

Inserted Objects

Image Document

WORD PAD OBJECT
INSERTED OFF INSERT
OBJECT DIALOG

$$\sum_6^3 4x + 6$$

PowerPoint Slide

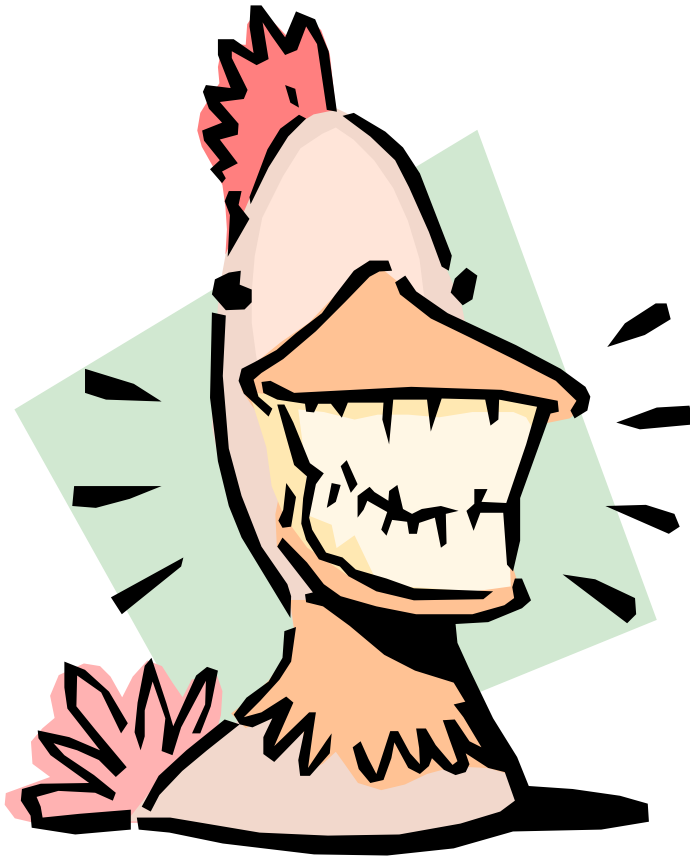

Inserted off the insert dialog

Some more text related features...

- Bold, Italicized, shadow, emboss, underline
- Superscript
- Formatted placeholder
- subscript

Wordart inserted off insert Objec

Clipart & Text Placeholder

- Cag object inserted thru Placeholder
  - No formatting straight insertion

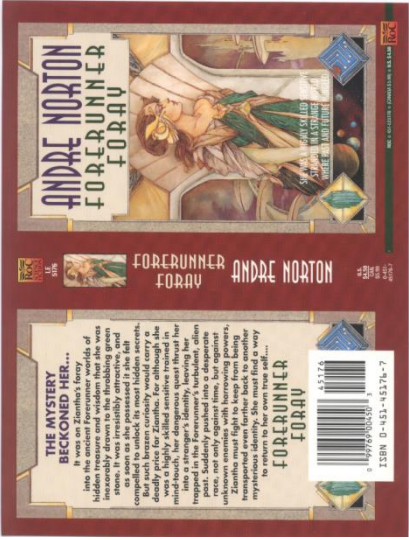

Rubber-Necking.jpg

Rainbow.gif

Autoshape formatted with Goldengate.bmp

Shadow applied to shape

|       |      |
|-------|------|
| ONE   | Two  |
| Three | Four |

Tediously Drawn "Network" diagrams

Ovals and rectangles are used the most

Connector

Shadow
Text is

Popular
Inside

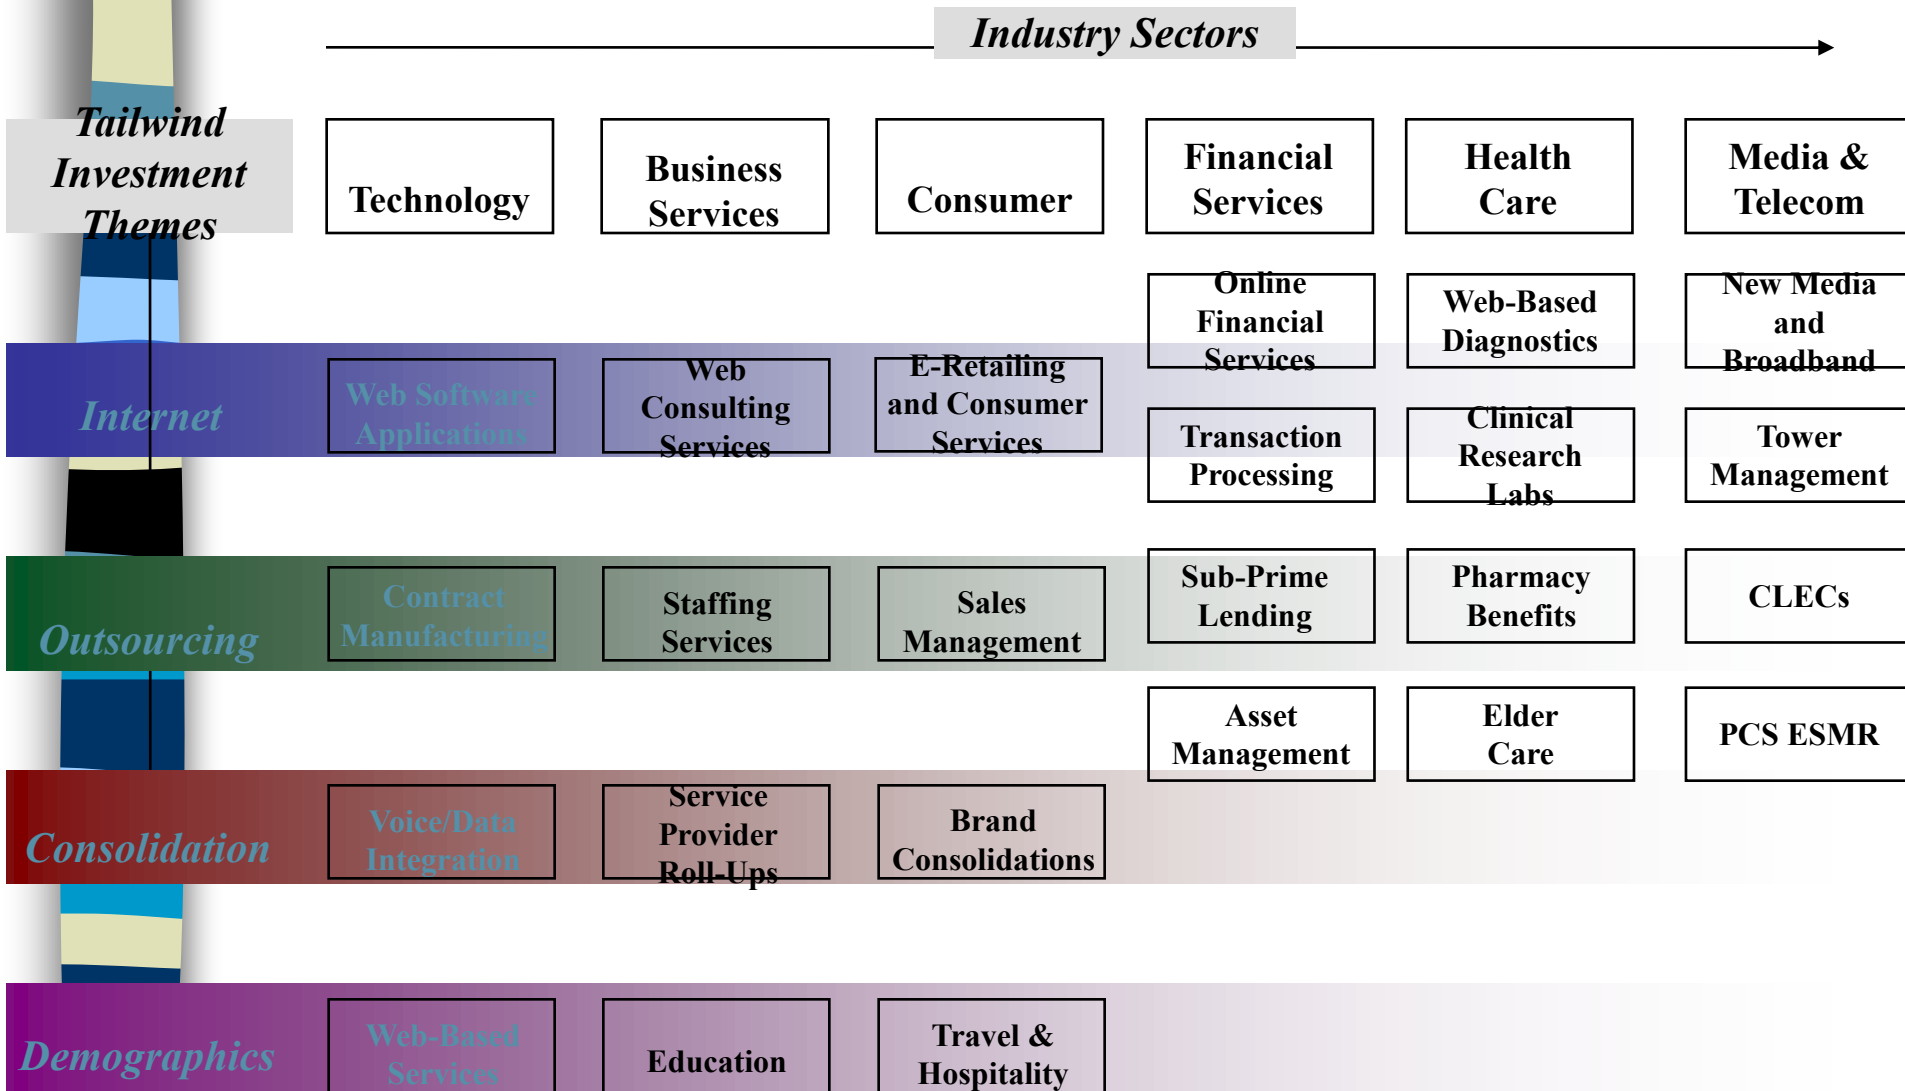

Shaded
Boxes

Workgroup
Web

Workgroup
Web

Often Slides Have Lots of Little Textboxes

Another Common Type of Slide

Large

Executive Information System,
Business Management Systems,
Accounts Payable, Accounts
Receivable,
HR Management, Image Analysis,
Retail Management, Electronic Mail,
Constructional Loan Application,
Property Management

Portfolio Management, Foreign Exchange, Systems Management,
Statistical Analysis, Financial
Consolidation, General Ledger, CIM,
Plant Control, Billing and Collection
Management

Medium

Legal Workstation, Single station accounting, Stock Management,
Dental Patient tracking,, Real Estate
Office, Mail Merge, Contact
Management, Utility Billing,
Appointment Scheduling,

Traders Workstation, Branch
Automation , Transaction Monitors,
Account Entry Reconciliation,
Inventory Management,
Maintenance Support, MRP, Sales
Force Automation, Point of Sale

Small